

I want to let you know I oppose to the Consumer Bankers Association challenging the Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. If they are successful in receiving an "established business relationship" exemption my family will receive unwanted calls during our private time at home. Please to not approve this exemption which will start the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law.